what is friendship?

two people,
one thinking of the other,
and the other thinking of one,
two people

that is friendship.

Did you know that before facebook, we didn't have Friends?

facebook makes it official and lays bare, for all to see unlike mail, an alternative, what you care about,
what anyone cares about.

enter regression.
Mathematically speaking,
you, the individual,
become the negative space.

Before facebook,
for a brief time
far away
friends used to know things only friends used to know...
